"I'd Like to Say What I Think of Them!"

Why don't you? Every store that regards its policy seriously would wish you to do so. The Ad-Visor Column offers you its space to use—and pays you for using it.

Should it be news of an unpleasant nature, the store manager wishes to tarn of it—perhaps you felt shy about telling him personally. If it's good brks both ways!

Frequently there are shopping experiences of women—and of men—which, for the guidance of the public, should be related. So may one learn the shops to look to for courteous service and satisfactory merchandise; and the shops in which to expect neither. The purpose of The Ad-Visor Column is to present the opportunity for such expression, and to pay for it. Did you have a suprisingly agreeable experience yesterday at an unfamiliar shop? Tell us about it. Or was the transaction distinctly unpleasant, though in a popular store? Tell us about that, too.

Your Opinion Is Valuable.

We pay $2.00 (in orders on Tribune advertisers) for letters which are published, without your name if desired. The store justly benefits by the relating, or quite as justly suffers. The publicity encourages the improvement of store politicities a justly suffers. The publicity encourages the improvement of store politicisms to its subscribers and its advertisers. Then, once each month, The Ad-Visor draws an order check of $50.00 to the full of the most helpful letter received during those thirty days. The Defining result was published recently.

If you are one who likes to say what you think say it to The Ad-Visor—and be failed for it:

The Main Dining Room and the Palm Room immediately adjoining in the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE make a very attractive setting for the people who dine in them. Somehow, you feel at home in them right away.

There is not that loud talking which is so annoying to so many people. The orchestra is placed outside of the dining rooms—so the music comes to you in soft, pleasing strains, not in the loud manner which drowns conversation. In addition, the food served is so good and so well prepared that every-body gets a full measure of satisfac-

Just keep the Belleclaire in mind when you dine out. One experience will make you a regular customer. Robert D. Blackman,
